
F.O.I. Fund Grant Application:
Kenneth and Charlotte Brashaber Teacher Enhancement Award

Expressing a passion for the field of education, Ken and Charlotte Brashaber established this award (fund) in 2017 to encourage curriculum development by providing Rushville Consolidated High School [RCHS] teachers the opportunity to share experiences to enhance the learning process for students. This award will enrich the educational experience for teachers and students by providing funding for:

1. A proposed activity or project outside of the classroom
2. An activity or project within the classroom
3. Additional schooling to further education enhancement (including symposiums, conferences, seminars, continuing education, Master's Degree)

Priority for this grant will be given to a teacher proposing a creative or unconventional idea for the benefit of the educational process.
