

May 2024

The month of May is always a whirlwind for us. Not quite like the one near my house on Tuesday night, but turbulent in the best of ways.

We've submitted two Community Leadership proposals totaling $6.8M in requests as part of Lilly Endowment Inc.'s GIFT VIII program. One will address three of the biggest local issues as defined by you in the County's recent planning efforts. The other is a regional collaboration with community foundations in Fayette, Hendricks, and Henry counties. Our last proposal jumpstarted the Love Community Center. Keep your fingers crossed.

Scholarship selections have been made and approved. Look for social media shout outs to start in the next few weeks. Many thanks to our scholarship committee for scoring more than 1100 applications!

Cycle I of this year's Community Grants is wrapping up. There are more requests than dollars available. Gifts to these funds are being matched 2:1 right now. Did you know that once you've helped us reach our goal, $787,500 will be added to these funds to increase grantmaking dollars forever? Our heads are spinning with excitement! How about yours, Lisa?

CIRCLe Fund Grantee Announced

The CIRCLE Fund was started by six friends and RCCF supporters - Pam Hoeing, Shelly King, Heather Meckes, Amy Ploeger, Cindy Taff, and Betsy Williams. It is a women's giving group that pools many donors' resources via a $300 annual contribution to make a large grant to a transformative project. Each year they gather to read applications, vote, and enjoy each other's company.

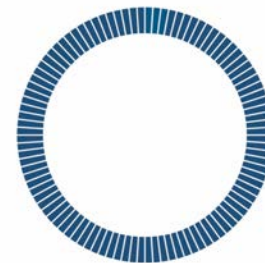

But their decision is never easy.

FREE Nonprofit Coaching Series Continues

David Fry of Effective Advancement Strategies Consulting will be back to guide us through "Donor Relationships in 3-D" on May 15.

"Our focus will be on the process involved in building deeper relationships while building trust with your donors. Why do they give? How can we connect better? What are their hidden motivations and expectations? It's a great program for both boards and staff to ignite passion around a more structured development program," he shared.

Register now at info@rushcountyfoundation.org or (765) 938-1177. A networking lunch is included.

Grantee Update: Rushville FFA

"We cannot say thank you enough to the anonymous donor with the 'We Believe in FFA Fund' for providing this wonderful opportunity to see exciting innovations and career opportunities in agriculture," Rushville FFA posted on their Facebook page. This gift made possible a trip to St. Louis for the Top 25 FFA students.

Is there a program or organization in our community that you have a passion for? We can help you make a meaningful difference when you set up a fund to support it.
