

September 2024

When the worst happens, it doesn't always bring out the best in people. Fortunately, for our community it does.

Earlier this week, Rushville's downtown was transformed by a devastating fire at the Corner Restaurant at Third and Main. It leaves a hole in our town and our hearts - for the owners, employees, and all who loved this community mainstay.

But empty space makes room for something else to fill in.

Our local fire departments and those of surrounding communities contributed their bravery, dedication, and expertise to minimize the loss. City and County officials coordinated safety and communication. Downtown businesses and residents supplied water and food for first responders. Others offered commercial equipment to dry out affected properties. One organization extended space and assistance to another. Words of care, concern, and gratitude gushed like water from the firehoses.

While the building will be gone soon, we have no doubt that the kindness that flowed in is here to stay because of people like you, Lisa.

Meet the New Love Community Center Director, Zuzana Smith

The board of directors of the Love Community Center (LCC) is excited to announce they have hired a director, Zuzana Smith.

Building community is a core value that drives Zuzi. And one that meshes perfectly with this decades-long, community-driven dream about to become reality.

"If I had to pick one word to describe myself, it would be 'host,'" she reflected.

"Serving others and fostering welcoming, friendly environments where people can connect and share new experiences truly energizes me. Nurturing community is about more than just bringing people together; it's about creating a space where individuals can feel valued and supported. It's about building a foundation where every member can thrive, learn from one another, and feel secure," she shared.

Learn more about Zuzi's experience, her family, and why Rush County immediately felt like home to her.
